POSITION POSTING FOR GENERAL MANAGER

The People's Food Co-op in Ann Arbor, MI is seeking an engaging visionary general manager to lead our community-owned food cooperative into the future in an increasingly competitive environment. Founded in the early 1970s by health-conscious, community oriented individuals, we have one culturally iconic store with over 8,000 member-owners, 80 employees, workers' union, and approximately $8 million in annual revenue.

Qualified candidates will be:

- Experienced and successful grocery and/or retail managers with the ability to integrate daily business management practices with visionary thinking to implement the Co-op's Ends Policy.

And will demonstrate the following:

- outstanding communication skills;
- change management facilitation skills;
- the proven ability to lead and motivate others; and
- the highest integrity, personal responsibility, and personal and social values required for continued growth of our member-owned cooperative.

This position reports to the Board of Directors. The People's Food Co-op operates under Policy Governance and is a member of National Cooperative Grocers. For more information about our Co-op and the General Manager position, please visit our website: www.peoplesfood.coop.
