

People's Food Co-op Annual Meeting
April 20, 2017 ~ Kerrytown Concert Hall

Introduction: Persephone welcomed people to the annual meeting at 6:50pm.

GM Report: Interim GM Angie Voiles addressed the group. She announced that we reached quorum and highlighted some of the changes/happenings this year: staff unionized, GM resignation, basement flood.

Angie welcomed and thanked staff and the board for their work with special thanks Lori Crall for her service in three management positions (when she served as interim GM). Angie also thanked Leah & David for putting together this event

Ken King Life as Art Award: Persephone introduced Linda Diane Feldt, Cathy King and Kenny King to present the Ken King Life as Art award. Linda Diane explained the background of this award, meant honor of the late Ken King who passed away in 2009. This year's winner is the late Paul Burger, Jr. Paul's parents accepted on his behalf.

Election Results: Gaia Kile 663 votes, Jeremy Lapham 625, Bruce Curtis 542, Steve Rich 470. This means that Gaia, Jeremy, Bruce will be serving on the board Member agenda/comments: Nothing was added to the agenda that was posted at the store. There was one member question from the floor regarding how the co-op will attract the changing population of Ann Arbor. Angie responded with some of the initiatives being taken by the co-op. Member-owner Jeff Crockett, the communications officer for the Old Fourth Ward residents' association, introduced himself and spoke about how he was working with our former GM to try to engage more students and more neighborhood residents to shop at co op.

Respectfully submitted,

Keegan Rodgers, Board Secretary
